

Takuo Sugano

Mr. Sugano received his B.E., M.E, and PhD degrees in electrical engineering, all from the University of Tokyo in 1954, 1956 and 1959 respectively, and joined Department of Electronic Engineering, the University of Tokyo as an Assistant Professor, and continued to work as an Associate Professor, a Professor and Dean of School of Engineering through 1992, and was honored to be a Professor Emeritus. Then he moved to Toyo University where he served as President until 2000 and Chair of the Board of Governors until 2006, and is currently an Academic Adviser and a Professor Emeritus. He received the title of Honorary Professor from National Chiao Tung University and National Cheng Kung University, both in Taiwan, in 2007 and 2008 respectively. Dr. Sugano is a former President and a Honorary Member of the JSAP, an IEEE Life Fellow and the recipient of the IEEE Jack A. Morton Award.